Journal of Visual Impairment & Blindness

INDEX

VOLUME 87, 1993

Compiled by Regina Genwright
M.C. Migel Memorial Library and Information Center

AMERICAN FOUNDATION FOR THE BLIND
15 WEST 16TH STREET
New York, NY 10011

VOLUME 87, 1993

SUBJECTS AND NAMES

A

ABUSE: See AGING; CHILDREN; DRUG ABUSE

ACCESSIBILITY
- See also: AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA)
- Accessibility Guide—June, 246
- Accessibility Issues for Business—December, 424
- Accessible Environments without the Stigma—October, 314
- Breaking the Barriers to the Design Professions for Visually Impaired Persons—December, 396
- Guide to Accessing Graphical User Interfaces—January, 21
- Guide to Making the Arts Accessible to Disabled Persons—February, 58-59
- The Instructional Validity of Statewide Criterion-Referenced Tests for Students Who Are Visually Impaired—April, 115-117
- Instructions for Making Religious Facilities Accessible—May, 156
- Legal Guide to Ensuring Access at Postsecondary Institutions—February, 59
- Museum in Madrid Emphasizes Tactile Exploration—April, 100
- National Center for Accessible Media—December, 426
- Nature Trips for Disabled and Nondisabled Adventurers—April, 120
- Response to Access Issues: A Design and Architectural Perspective—January, 18
- Software Creates Digital Versions of Newspapers—April, 118
- Solutions: Access Technology for People Who Are Blind, by Diane Croft and Olga Espenola, Reviewed by Jeffrey Moyer—February, 35
- Travel Information Network—November, 386
- Video Presentation of Large-Print and Braille Signage—May, 156

ADA: See AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA)

ADAPTIVE DEVICES
- Adaptive Blood Glucose Monitoring and Insulin Measurement Devices for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 341-345
- Adaptive Technology Resource—February, 55
- Help in Holding Objects—November, 386
- Loans for Purchasing Adaptive Technology—February, 55
- Needs of Home-Based Older Visually Impaired Persons for Assistive Devices—April, 106-110
- New Journal Addresses Assistive Technology—February, 55
- Nonvisual Adaptive Devices for Measuring Insulin—November, 345-347

ADJUSTMENT
- See also: PSYCHOLOGY
- Aging and Friendship—December, 422
- Low Vision and Aging—December, 422
- One Way or Another: A Guide to Independence for the Visually Impaired and Their Families, by Vivian Younger and Jill Sardegna, Reviewed by Deborah Kent—March, 67
- Program for Information and Social Gathering—January, 27
- The Short Life: The Life-Span Construct of Visually Impaired Adults with Diabetes—November, 371-375.
- Support Groups for Persons with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 376-377.

ADOLESCENTS
- Teen Institute—June, 206
- Video Profile of Disabled Youths—March, 90

ADVOCACY
- See also: LEGISLATION
- International Disability Advocacy Group Formed—February, 58
- Magazine Highlights Access and Advocacy—April, 123
- Tackling Disability Portrayals in the Media—February, 41

AFRICA
- New Organization Serves Developing Countries—November, 384

AGENCY NEWS
- See also: REHABILITATION SERVICES; SERVICE DELIVERY
- American Foundation for the Blind—September, 280
- Associated Services for the Blind in Philadelphia—September, 280
- The Chicago Lighthouse—October, 317
- Columbia Lighthouse for the Blind—September, 280
- Mark Your Rolodex—October, 315
- Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary Rehabilitation Center—September, 280
- Mississippi State University—October, 317

AGING
- Addressing the Needs of Older Blind Persons—December, 427
- Aging and Friendship—December, 422
- Automobile Accidents and Drivers Over 65—September, 280
- Awards for Exemplary Institutions for Older Persons—April, 122
- Books About Caring for Seniors—September, 280
- Call for Papers—April, 122
- Chronicle of Aging—December, 422
- The Costs of Nursing Home and Home Care—June, 246
- Family Concerns and Older People Who Are Blind—January, 6-11
- Gap in Medical Care for Older Persons—March, 77
- Grants Available for Research on Aging—February, 59
- Grants for Projects Benefiting Older Persons—April, 122
- Information about Aging Populations: At a Glance—January, 20
- Issues Related to Minority Aging—April, 122
- A Look at Trends in Aging in Taiwan and Singapore—June, 246
- Low Vision and Aging—December, 422
- Musical Production on Aging—June, 246
- Needs of Home-Based Older Visually Impaired Persons for Assistive Devices—April, 106-110
- Orientation and Mobility Assistants—January, 3
- Paying for Long-Term Care Insurance: A Pilot Plan—April, 117
- Program Provides Free Eye Exams for Older Persons—June, 244
- Public Education Materials on Elder Abuse—June, 246
- Report Focuses on Needs of Minority Elders—April, 120
- A Survey of Statewide Self-Help Groups for Older Persons Who Are Visually Impaired—April, 112-114
- Training Outreach Workers to Serve American Indian Elders with Visual Impairment and Diabetes—November, 336-340
- Video Course Illuminates the Aging Process—April, 122
- Video Shows How Older Persons Can Participate in Their Communities—April, 120

AIDS (ACQUIRED IMMUNE DEFICIENCY SYNDROME)
- Curriculum for AIDS Prevention—October, 313
- Eye Care and AIDS—October, 314
- The Vocabulary of AIDS Defined—June, 243-244

AIRLINES
- Barriers to Traveling with Electronics—November, 383

ALCOHOLISM
- Disabled Persons and Substance Abuse—March, 91
- Video on Addiction Prevention—November, 385-386

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF DIABETES EDUCATORS (AADE)
- The Role of the Diabetes Educator—November, 329-330

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED PERSONS (AARP)
- Grants for Projects Benefiting Older Persons—April, 122
- Report Shows Unmet Need for Rehabilitation Services—March, 91

AMERICAN FOUNDATION FOR THE BLIND (AFB)
- American Foundation for the Blind—September, 280
- Braille Mentors Sought—March, 88
- Consumer Products Catalog—November, 386
- Delivering Blindness Services: A Framework for Policy Debate and Research—April, 99
- Demystifying Braille—December, 420
- Development of a Preschool "Kiddy Cane"—February, 52-54
- Guide to Developing Programs for Financing Assistive Technology—June, 238
- Listings of Blindness Services in the United States and Canada—April, 120
- Nominations Invited for 1993 Migel Awards—May, 154

Role Models on the Job—December, 420
AMERICAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION
The ADA and Libraries—March, 88
AMERICAN PRINTING HOUSE FOR THE BLIND (APH)
Adapting Standardized Academic Tests in Braille and Large Type—December, 405-407
Braille Embosser for Business Cards—January, 21
Special Holiday and Note Cards—November, 386
Tactile Maps—January, 25
AMERICAN RED CROSS
Red Cross Information in Accessible Formats—April, 125
AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA)
Accessibility Guide—June, 246
Accessibility Issues for Business—December, 424
Accessible Environments without the Stigma—October, 314
The ADA and Employment—March, 90
The ADA and Libraries—March, 88
ADA Overview on Video—October, 314
The Americans with Disabilities Act: From Policy to Practice, by Jane West, Reviewed by Kathleen Megivern—April, 99-100
Catalog of ADA-Related Products—April, 122
Disability Concentration in an MPA Program—September, 278
Fair Treatment of Disabled Employees—April, 122
Fast-Food Company Addresses ADA Compliance—March, 88-90
Guiding Employers through the ADA—June, 244
How the ADA Affects Colleges and Universities—March, 88
Outline of the ADA and Employment—April, 122
Progress Report on the ADA—November, 386-387
Public Education on the ADA—November, 387
Recreation Planning Guides—October, 314
Report From ADA Employment Summit—April, 122
Training Packages Addresses the ADA—March, 90
Video Presentation of Large-Print and Braille Signage—May, 156
ARCHITECTURE: See ACCESSIBILITY
ARIAS, CLAUDIA
Echolocation: A Study of Auditory Functioning in Blind and Sighted Subjects—March, 73-77
ARKANSAS SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND
Providing Services to All Children with Visual Impairments in a Rural State—June, 207-208
ARKENSTONE, INC
Reading Machine in an Advanced Version—September, 276
Reading Machine with Increased Speed—January, 21
ART
Art for Visually Impaired Persons—September, 277-278
Guide to Making the Arts Accessible to Disabled Persons—February, 58-59
Musical of Helen Keller's Life on Tour at Schools—April, 120
Newsletter for Jobs in the Arts—December, 420
Special Holiday and Note Cards—November, 386
ASHCROFT, S. C
An Analysis of Errors in Braille Writing Samples—January, 12-18
ASSESSMENT
See also: TESTS AND TESTING
Addressing Unique Educational Needs of Individuals with Disabilities: An Outcome-Based Approach, by Disabilities Research Systems, Reviewed by Bill Davis—June, 168-169
Characteristics of Students Evaluated at a Residential School's Low Vision Clinics: 1981-1991—June, 180-182
The Education of Youths Who Are Deaf-Blind: Learning Tasks and Teaching Methods—September, 259-262
Guide for Eye Care—November, 385
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
How to Check Your Child's Eyes—October, 313
The Improvement of Vision by Vision Stimulation and Training: A Review of the Literature—May, 143-148
Independent Living: A Curriculum with Adaptations for Students with Visual Impairments, by Robin Lumiet and Nancy Lovac, Reviewed by Marjorie Kaiser—June, 169
Issues in Standardizing Psychometric Tests for Children Who Are Blind—May, 149-150
Learning and Study Strategies of Secondary School Students with Visual Impairments—September, 263-267
The Management of Low Vision in Children: Report of the 1992 World Health Organization Consultation—October, 307-309
A Model Assessment Program—June, 190-193
A Model for the Efficient Interdisciplinary Assessment of Young Visually Impaired Children December, 410-414
VAP-CAP: A Procedure to Assess the Visual Functioning of Young Visually Impaired Children—February, 46-49
ASSOCIATION FOR EDUCATION AND REHABILITATION OF THE VISUALLY IMPAIRED (AER)
Call for Papers—April, 120
ATTITUDES
Do Myths Associated with Schools for Students Who Are Blind Negatively Effect Placement Decisions?—June, 213-215
Educational Programs for Blind Children: A Kaleidiscopic View—June, 177-180
The Effect of Cultural Beliefs on the Treatment of Native Peoples with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 333-335
Employment Status and Quality of Life of Graduates of a Residential School—June, 229-233
Images of Disability on Television, by Guy Cumberbatch and Ralph Negrine, Reviewed by Michael J. Bina—October, 287-288
Including a Student with Multiple Disabilities and Visual Impairment in Her Neighborhood School—September, 268-272
South Africa: A Survey of Attitudes toward Employing Blind Teachers in Schools for Sighted Children—April, 118-120
We're Not That Much Different—June, 207
AUDIO DESCRIPTION
See also: DESCRIPTIVE VIDEO SERVICE (DVS)
Europe: Research on Audio Description Technology—March, 86
National Center for Accessible Media—December, 426
Two Theaters Add Audiodescription—December, 426
Video with Audiodescription—January, 27
AUSTRALIA
Australia's Master's Program for Teachers of Visually Impaired Students—October, 318
Investigating Stress Associated with Mobility Training through Consumer Discussion Groups—April, 111-112
AUSTRIA
Teaching Manual from Austria—February, 58
AVERIT, EDWARD L.
Cultural Diversity in Action—June, 188-190
AWARDS
Acoustical Society Honors Reading-Machine Pioneer—December, 416
Awards—September, 278
Awards for Exemplary Institutions for Older Persons—April, 122
Nominations Invited for 1993 Migel Awards—May, 154

B

BAKER, DIANE
From Old Wisdom to Future Trends—June, 183-185
BAKER, SHELLEY SIKES
Diabetes Treatment Breakthrough—November, 325-328
Teamwork between the Health Care Community and the Rehabilitation System—November, 349-351
BELGIUM
Belgium: Leading Flemish Newspaper Now Available in Braille—March, 86
BENTLEY, DAVID W.
Needs of Home-Based Older Visually Impaired Persons for Assistive Devices—April, 106-110
BERKOWITZ, KATHY
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
BERNBAUM, MARLA
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
BEST, ANTHONY B.
The Management of Low Vision in Children: Report of the 1992 World Health Organization Consultation—October,307-309
BINA, MICHAEL J.
Do Myths Associated with Schools for Students Who Are Blind Negatively Effect Placement Decisions?—June, 213-215
BIOGRAPHIES
Musical of Helen Keller's Life on Tour at Schools—April, 120
BLANCH, NIDIA
Echolocation: A Study of Auditory Functioning in Blind and Sighted Subjects—March, 73-77
BLANKSBY, DIXIE C.
VAP-CAP: A Procedure to Assess the Visual Functioning of Young Visually Impaired Children—February, 46-49
BLEDSOE, C. WARREN
Dr. Samuel Gridley Howe and the Family Tree of Residential Schools—June, 174-176
BLESSING, DANIEL L.
The Effects of Regular Exercise Programs for Visually Impaired and Sighted Schoolchildren—February, 50-52

BLINDISMS: See STEREOTYPIC BEHAVIORS
BOGART, DARLENE
The Unified Braille Code: Some Myths and Realities—December, 395-396
BOLDUC, MICHAEL
A Model for the Efficient Interdisciplinary Assessment of Young Visually Impaired Children—December, 410-414
BOOK REVIEWS
Addressing Unique Educational Needs of Individuals with Disabilities: An Outcome-Based Approach, by Disabilities Research Systems, Reviewed by Bill Davis—June, 168-169
The Americans with Disabilities Act: From Policy to Practice, by Jane West, Reviewed by Kathleen Megivern—April, 99-100
Blind and Partially Sighted Adults in Britain: The RNIB Survey (Volume 1), by Ian Bruce, Aubrey McKennell, and Errol Walker; Blind and Partially Sighted Children in Britain: The RNIB Survey (Volume 2), by Errol Walker, Michael Tobin, and Aubrey McKennell, Reviewed by Corinne Kirchner—September, 257-258
Independent Living: A Curriculum with Adaptations for Students with Visual Impairments, by Robin Lumiet and Nancy Lovac, Reviewed by Marjorie Kaiser—June, 169
One Way or Another: A Guide to Independence for the Visually Impaired and Their Families, by Vivian Younger and Jill Sardegna, Reviewed by Deborah Kent—March, 67
Optometric Management of Visual Handicap, by Helen Farrall, Reviewed by Alfred A. Rosenbloom—May, 133
Solutions: Access Technology for People Who Are Blind, by Diane Croft and Olga Espenola, Reviewed by Jeffrey Moyer—February, 35
Speech Synthesis: Technology for Disabled Persons, by Alistair D. N. Edwards, Reviewed by Mark M. Uslan—March, 67-68
Teaching Blind and Low Vision Children, by C. K. Sykes and E. D. Ozoji, Reviewed by Gale R. Watson—January, 3-5
Teaching Children with Visual Impairments, by Anthony B. Best, Reviewed by Stuart H. Wittenstein—February, 36
Youth with Visual Disabilities: Transition from School to Work Technical Report, Rehabilitation Research and Training Center, Mississippi State University, Reviewed by Dawn Turco—February, 35
BOOKS AND READING
See also: BRAILLE; LARGE PRINT; LITERACY; TAPE CASSETTES
Bibliography of Children's Books with Disability Focus—June, 242
Bibliography of Materials on Intergenerational Issues—April, 122
Books About Caring for Seniors—September, 280
Books Addressing Early Childhood—March, 90-91
Books on Computer Disk—June, 248
Books on Disk—September, 277
Catalog of Books in Braille—June, 244
Catalog of Braille Children's Books—October, 316
Compilation of Readings on Early Childhood—April, 123
The Star of This Book Is a Blind Girl—October, 316
BOWDEN, JO
Including a Student with Multiple Disabilities and Visual Impairment in Her Neighborhood School—September, 268-272
BRAILLE
Adapting Standardized Academic Tests in Braille and Large Type—December, 405-407
An Analysis of Errors in Braille Writing Samples—January, 12-18
Belgium: Leading Flemish Newspaper Now Available in Braille—March, 86
Braille Access Device—December, 416
Braille Bill Update—May, 131-132
Braille Embosser for Business Cards—January, 21
Braille Mentors Sought—March, 88
Braille Templates for Keyboards—June, 238
Catalog of Books in Braille—June, 244
Cookbook in Braille—February, 59
Cookbook in Braille—September, 278-280
Demystifying Braille—December, 420
Edible Braille Messages—November, 386
Emergency Instructions in Braille and on Tape—April, 125
Free Tape and Braille Magazine—October, 315
Gardening for Visually Impaired Persons—September, 277
The German School at Middlebury College: New Technology and Old Generosity of Spirit—September, 256
Greeting Cards in Braille—January, 25
Introduction to Braille—June, 244-246
Is Braille a Language?—May, 132-133
Library of Large-Cell Braille—December, 420
New Portable Braille Embosser—April, 118
Newsletter on Access to Information by Visually Impaired Persons—September, 277
Red Cross Information in Accessible Formats—April, 125
Role Models on the Job—December, 420
Suggestions for Refining the Chinese Braille System—October, 289-294
The Unified Braille Code: Some Myths and Realities—December, 395-396
Video Presentation of Large-Print and Braille Signage—May, 156
BRASHER, BOB
Providing Services to All Children with Visual Impairments in a Rural State—June, 207-208
BRAZIL
Portugal—November, 385
BRYANT, ED
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
A Peer Support Network for Blind People with Diabetes—November, 377
BURGER KING CORP.
Fast-Food Company Addresses ADA Compliance—March, 88-90
BURLINGAME, LLOYD
The German School at Middlebury College: New Technology and Old Generosity of Spirit—September, 256

C
CAMPS
A Camp for Blind and Sighted Children in Finland—May, 153-154
Camp with Sessions for Children and Adults—February, 59
CANADA
Call for Papers on Work with Visually Impaired Children—January, 25
Canada—November, 384
Grants for Purchasing Assistive Technology for Library Users—April, 118
New Program to Train Rehabilitation Teachers—September, 278
Short-Term Placements: A Crucial Role for Residential Schools—June, 193-198
CARMAN-MERRIFIELD, CAROLYN
Patient Evaluation of the 7X30 Beecher Mirage Low Vision System—December, 408-409
CARROLL CENTER FOR THE BLIND
Curriculum for Medical Transcription—December, 420
Monographs on Sensory Training—February, 59
Program for Blind Sailors Seeks Sighted Guides—February, 59
CATALOGS: See DIRECTORIES/CATALOGS
CATARACTS
Is Cataract Surgery Always Worth the Risk?—September, 258
CATON, HILDA
The Unified Braille Code: Some Myths and Realities—December, 395-396
CHILDREN
See also: EDUCATION; INFANTS AND PRESCHOOL CHILDREN; SPECIAL EDUCATION
Advice for Parents of Children with Disabilities—April, 123-124
Bibliography of Children's Books with Disability Focus—June, 242
Catalog of Braille Children's Books—October, 316
Children in Developing Countries—November, 384
Children's Encyclopedia in Braille—September, 277
Educating Children Who Need the Most Help—November, 388
Guide for Teaching Young Children—October, 316
How Children Fared through History—April, 123
Introduction to Culturally-Sensitive Caregiving—June, 243
Involving Parents in Their Children's Schoolwork—November, 388
Program Teaches Young Children Adaptive Technology—March, 86
Social Participation of Young Children with Visual Impairments in Specialized and Integrated Environments—May, 138-142
The Star of This Book Is a Blind Girl—October, 316
Statistics Concerning American Children—March, 90
Theme Issue on Disabled Children and Sexual Abuse—January, 25
CHINA
Suggestions for Refining the Chinese Braille System—October, 289-294
CLAPP, JOHN M.
Confessions of an Orientation and Mobility Technician—October, 287
CLEARY, MARGARET E.
Diabetes Treatment Breakthrough—November, 325-328
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
Nonvisual Adaptive Devices for Measuring Insulin—November, 345-347
Rehabilitation Services for People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment in Japan—November, 359-361
CLEVELAND SIGHT CENTER
Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons at Cleveland Sight Center—November, 352-353

CLOSED CIRCUIT TELEVISION (CCTV)
A Review of Two Low-Cost Closed Circuit Television Systems—October, 310-313
COGNITIVE SKILLS
Breaking the Barriers to the Design Professions for Visually Impaired Persons—December, 396
Echolocation: A Study of Auditory Functioning in Blind and Sighted Subjects—March, 73-77
The Improvement of Vision by Vision Stimulation and Training: A Review of the Literature—May, 143-148
COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES
See also: PROFESSIONAL TRAINING; SCHOLARSHIPS
Australia's Master's Program for Teachers of Visually Impaired Students—October, 318
College Information for Persons with Disabilities—December, 424
Disability Concentration in an MPA Program—September, 278
Gallaudet's School of Education Accredited—March, 92
The German School at Middlebury College: New Technology and Old Generosity of Spirit—September, 256
How the ADA Affects Colleges and Universities—March, 88
Legal Guide to Ensuring Access at Postsecondary Institutions—February, 59
New Program in Disability Studies—June, 242
New Program to Train Rehabilitation Teachers—September, 278
An Off-Campus College Program to Prepare Rehabilitation Teachers of Visually Impaired Students—September, 273-274
Report on Exemplary Programs for Disabled College Students—February, 59-60
COMMUNICATION SKILLS
Communication between Deaf and Hearing Persons—November, 387-388
Prelanguage Communication of Students Who Are Deaf-Blind and Have Other Severe Impairments—October, 302-307
COMPUTERS
See also: ADAPTIVE DEVICES; OPTICAL DEVICES; TECHNOLOGY
Barriers to Traveling with Electronics—November, 383
Books on Computer Disk—June, 248
Books on Disk—September, 277
Braille Access Device—December, 416
Braille Pocket Computer in Spanish—September, 276
Braille Templates for Keyboards—June, 238
Free Access to Network on Job Information—September, 281
Funding for Assistive Technology—December, 416
The German School at Middlebury College: New Technology and Old Generosity of Spirit—September, 256
Guide to Accessing Graphical User Interfaces—January, 21
Guide to Computer Access for Visually Impaired Users—February, 55
Guide to Software and Copyright Law—June, 238
Lease Program for Braille Notebook Computer—November, 382
Low Vision Software—December, 416
Magazine about Educational Technology—September, 276
Newsletter on Access to Information by Visually Impaired Persons—September, 277
Newspapers on Electronic Networks—December, 416
School Management Program—December, 416
Screen-Access Program—November, 383
Software Creates Digital Versions of Newspapers—April, 118
Update of Screen Magnification Program—September, 276
CONFERENCES
See also: PROFESSIONAL TRAINING
Call for Abstracts on Eye Care—January, 25
Call for Papers—April, 120
Call for Papers—April, 122
Call for Papers on Work with Visually Impaired Children—January, 25
Delivering Blindness Services: A Framework for Policy Debate and Research—April, 99
The Management of Low Vision in Children: Report of the 1992 World Health Organization Consultation—October, 307-309
Results of Meeting on General and Specialized Services for Blind Persons—March, 91
COOKING
Audiotape Cooking Classes—February, 59
Cookbook in Braille—February, 59
Cookbook in Braille—September, 278-280
CORN, ANNE L.
Learning and Study Strategies of Secondary School Students with Visual Impairments—September, 263-267
The Management of Low Vision in Children: Report of the 1992 World Health Organization Consultation—October, 307-309
COUNCIL OF SCHOOLS FOR THE BLIND (COSB)
Council of Schools for the Blind—June, 204
COUNSELING: See ADJUSTMENT; PSYCHOLOGY
COURTNEY, ANNALYN
Orientation and Mobility Assistants—January, 3
CRAWFORD, DONALD G.
Blindness, Diabetes, and Amputation: Alleviation of Depression and Pain through Thermal Biofeedback Therapy—November, 368-371
CREWS, JOHN E.
Family Concerns and Older People Who Are Blind—January, 6-11
CUBA
Epidemic of a New Vision-Impairing Disease in Cuba—September, 262
CURET, CARLOS AUGUSTO
Echolocation: A Study of Auditory Functioning in Blind and Sighted Subjects—March, 73-77
CURRY, SANDRA ADAMS
A Model Assessment Program—June, 190-193

D

DAVIDSON, ROSEANNA
Vision and Orientation and Mobility Consultation for Children with Severe Multiple Disabilities—December, 397-401
DAVIS, JUDY
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
DEAF-BLINDNESS
See also: MULTIPLE HANDICAPS
The Education of Youths Who Are Deaf-Blind: Learning Tasks and Teaching Methods—September, 259-262
Guide to Working with Deaf-Blind Adults—April, 120
Legislative Changes Regarding Deaf-Blindness—June, 248
A Model for Outreach Technical Assistance—June, 201-203
Prelanguage Communication of Students Who Are Deaf-Blind and Have Other Severe Impairments—October, 302-307
Teen Institute—June, 206
Training for Teachers of Deaf-Blind Students in Britain—February, 58
Video Demonstrates Communication with Deaf-Blind Persons—June, 242
Video Features Deaf-Blind Employee—March, 88
DEHMER, JOHN
A Survey of Statewide Self-Help Groups for Older Persons Who Are Visually Impaired—April, 112-114
DELAGARSA, DENISE VARRETT
Employment Status and Quality of Life of Graduates of a Residential School—June, 229-233
DEMIGON, GAZELLA
Career Expectations of British Visually Impaired Students of School-Leaving Age—June, 209-210
DEMOGRAPHICS
Health Survey—December, 422-423
Severe Visual Impairment in the United States and in Each State, 1990—March, 80-85
DEMONT, RICHARD N.
New and Future Holes for Residential Schools—June, 224-226
DESCRIPTIVE VIDEO SERVICE
See also: AUDIO DESCRIPTION
Mark Your Rolodex—October, 315
DIABETES
Adaptive Blood Glucose Monitoring and Insulin Measurement Devices for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 341-345
Audiotapes on Diabetic Self-Care—April, 124
Blindness, Diabetes, and Amputation: Alleviation of Depression and Pain through Thermal Biofeedback Therapy—November, 368-371
Complications of Diabetes and Their Implications for Service Providers—November, 354-358
The Development and Field Testing of Materials on Diabetes for Persons with Low Vision or Low Literacy—November, 347-348
Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons at Cleveland Sight Center—November, 352-353
Diabetes Treatment Breakthrough—November, 325-328
The Effect of Cultural Beliefs on the Treatment of Native Peoples with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 333-335
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
Nonvisual Adaptive Devices for Measuring Insulin—November, 345-347
One Woman's Account of Diabetes and Vision Loss—April, 124
A Peer Support Network for Blind People with Diabetes—November, 377
Promoting Healthful Exercise for Visually Impaired Persons with Diabetes—November, 361-364
Rehabilitation Services for People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment in Japan—November, 359-361
The Role of the Diabetes Educator—November, 329-330
The Short Life: The Life-Span Construct of Visually Impaired Adults with Diabetes—November, 371-375

Special Problems of People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 331-333
Study Confirms Need for Regular Eye Exams for Persons with Diabetes—June, 243
Study Links Lack of Blood Sugar Maintenance with Severe Diabetic Eye Disease—April, 105
Support Groups for Persons with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 376-377
Teamwork between the Health Care Community and the Rehabilitation System—November, 349-351
Training Outreach Workers to Serve American Indian Elders with Visual Impairment and Diabetes—November, 336-340
Two Exercise Programs for People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 365-367
Visual Impairment and Diabetes: A Personal and Professional Perspective—November, 329
DIMITROVA, GANKA
Severe Visual Impairment in the United States and in Each State, 1990—March, 80-85
DIRECTORIES/CATALOGS
Accessible Catalogs for Home Shopping—November, 386
Adaptive Products for Preparing Food—March, 90
Adaptive Products Guide—October, 316
African American "Who's Who"—October, 316
Books of International Interest—November, 384
Catalog—November, 388
Catalog of Accessible Consumer Products—June, 246
Catalog of ADA-Related Products—April, 122
Catalog of Adaptive Technology—February, 55
Catalog of Books in Braille—June, 244
Catalog of Braille Children's Books—October, 316
Catalog of Teacher Training Videos—March, 88
Catalogs—February, 61
Catalogs of Products—January, 27
College Information for Persons with Disabilities—December, 424
Consumer Products Catalog—November, 386
Directory of Research Grants—June, 240
Directory of Services Abroad—November, 384
Directory on Specialized Housing for Disabled Persons—January, 27
Drug Treatment Center Directory—November, 386
Early Intervention Tools—December, 426
Equipment for Sitting and Walking—December, 426
Eschenbach Optik's New Product Catalog—September, 276
Grants for Disability Organizations—December, 425
Guide to Computer Access for Visually Impaired Users—February, 55
Instructional Resource Set—June, 240
Korea—November, 385
Language Courses on Tape—June, 248
Listings of Blindness Services in the United States and Canada—April, 120
Multicultural Guide—December, 424
Product Catalog—March, 90
Products Designed to Be Functional and Beautiful—June, 246
Publications Address Various Disabilities—December, 426-427
Publications Investigate Women's Issues—February, 61
Resource Listing Free Publications—October, 316
Resource Listing Free Publications—December, 424
Resources for Nonprofits—March, 92
Review of Health Care in Plans for Future Improvements—January, 27
DISABILITIES
See also: AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA); ATTITUDES; DEAF-BLINDNESS; LEARNING DISABILITIES; MULTIPLE HANDICAPS
Acrostic Plays with Names of Disabled Celebrities—April, 124-125
Adaptive Technology Resource—February, 55
Database for Organizations Seeking Disabled Applicants—June, 244
New Program in Disability Studies—June, 242
Nonprofit Explains Disability-Benefits System—March, 90
Tackling Disability Portrayals in the Media—February, 41
DODS, JAN
Diabetes Treatment Breakthrough—November, 325-328
Two Exercise Programs for People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 365-367
DOMINICAN COLLEGE
An Off-Campus College Program to Prepare Rehabilitation Teachers of Visually Impaired Students—September, 273-274
DRUG ABUSE
Disabled Persons and Substance Abuse—March, 91
Substance Abuse and Disability—December, 425
Teen Institute—June, 206
Video on Addiction Prevention—November, 385-386
DUCKWORTH, BILL J.
Adapting Standardized Academic Tests in Braille and Large Type—December, 405-407

E
EARLY CHILDHOOD: See INFANTS AND PRESCHOOL CHILDREN
EASTER SEAL SOCIETY
Program Gives Access to Volunteer Readers Via Fax—April, 118
EDUCATION
See also: COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES; LITERACY; PROFESSIONAL TRAINING; RESIDENTIAL SCHOOLS; SPECIAL EDUCATION
Book on Education Advocacy—December, 422
Educating Children Who Need the Most Help—November, 388
How Children Fared through History—April, 123
Involving Parents in Their Children's Schoolwork—November, 388
Reports on Health Care, Education, and Technology for Persons with Disabilities—April, 124
Request for Proposals—December, 425
Resource for Teachers of Young Children—November, 388
Scholarships Available—December, 420-422
Teaching Aid to Promote Disability Sensitivity—February, 60
Teaching Children with Visual Impairments, by Anthony B. Best, Reviewed by Stuart H. Wittenstein—February, 36
ELDRIDGE, LINDA S.
Blindness, Diabetes, and Amputation: Alleviation of Depression and Pain through Thermal Biofeedback Therapy—November, 368-371
ELECTRONIC TRAVEL AIDS (ETAS): See MOBILITY DEVICES
ELLIOTT, JEFFREY L.
A Laboratory Evaluation of the Strength of the Joints of the WCIB Folding Cane and the Mahler Improved Heavy-Duty Folding Cane—May, 152-153
EMPLOYMENT
See also: TRANSITION SKILLS; VOCATIONAL SERVICES
Accessibility Guide—June, 246
The ADA and Employment—March, 90
The Americans with Disabilities Act: From Policy to Practice, by Jane West, Reviewed by Kathleen Megivern—April, 99-100
Career Expectations of British Visually Impaired Students of School-Leaving Age—June, 209-210
Career Guide—December, 420
Database for Organizations Seeking Disabled Applicants—June, 244
Employment and Residential Status of Graduates from a Residential School—June, 234-237
Employment Status and Quality of Life of Graduates of a Residential School—June, 229-233
Fair Treatment of Disabled Employees—April, 122
Fast-Food Company Addresses ADA Compliance—March, 88-90
Free Access to Network on Job Information—September, 281
Guide for Job Applicants—May, 156
Guiding Employers through the ADA—June, 244
The Life of Blind People in Russia—January, 22-25
Magazine Promoting Career Advancement—May, 156
Newsletter for Jobs in the Arts—December, 420
Outline of the ADA and Employment—April, 122
Public Education on the ADA—November, 387
Report From ADA Employment Summit—April, 122
Resource for Training Employees in the Business Enterprise Program—March, 88
Role Models on the Job—December, 420
Scholarships Available—December, 420-422
South Africa: A Survey of Attitudes toward Employing Blind Teachers in Schools for Sighted Children—April, 118-120
Three Classes of Change to Improve the Daily Living Skills of Persons with Visual Impairment—December, 402-404
Video Features Deaf-Blind Employee—March, 88
Visual Impairment Versus Other Disabilities—November, 387
ENCYCLOPEDIAS/REFERENCE WORKS
Bibliography of Materials on Intergenerational Issues—April, 122
Children's Encyclopedia in Braille—September, 277
The Vocabulary of AIDS Defined—June, 243-244
ENGLAND: See GREAT BRITAIN

ERIN, JANE N.
Employment Status and Quality of Life of Graduates of a Residential School—June, 229-233
Inclusion: What Do We Want It to Mean to Schools for Students with Visual Disabilities—June, 165-168
Learning and Study Strategies of Secondary School Students with Visual Impairments—September, 263-267
The Road Last Traveled: New Directions for Schools for Students with Visual Impairments—June, 219-223
ERWIN, ELIZABETH J.
Social Participation of Young Children with Visual Impairments in Specialized and Integrated Environments—May, 138-142
ESCHENBACH OPTIK OF AMERICA
Eschenbach Optik's New Product Catalog—September, 276
Series of Hand-Held Magnifiers—February, 55
ETHNIC CULTURES
African American "Who's Who"—October, 316
Cultural Diversity in Action—June, 188-190
Disability Magazine with Jewish Focus—November, 388
The Effect of Cultural Beliefs on the Treatment of Native Peoples with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 333-335
Issues Related to Minority Aging—April, 122
A Look at Trends in Aging in Taiwan and Singapore—June, 246
Multicultural Guide—December, 424
EVALUATIONS
A Review of Two Low-Cost Closed Circuit Television Systems—October, 310-313
EVERS, CATE
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
EXERCISE
See also: PHYSICAL EDUCATION
Aerobics Tape with Verbal Explanation—May, 156
The Effects of Regular Exercise Programs for Visually Impaired and Sighted Schoolchildren—February, 50-52
Jump Rope for Visually Impaired Exercisers—February, 55
Promoting Healthful Exercise for Visually Impaired Persons with Diabetes—November, 361-364
Two Exercise Programs for People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 365-367
EYE DISORDERS AND DISEASES
See also: AIDS; CATARACTS; DIABETES; LOW VISION; MEDICAL RESEARCH
Characteristics of Students Evaluated at a Residential School's Low Vision Clinics: 1981-1991—June, 180-182
Complications of Diabetes and Their Implications for Service Providers—November, 354-358
Disability Awareness Video—April, 124
Epidemic of a New Vision-Impairing Disease in Cuba—September, 262
Eye Tests and Learning Disabilities—October, 314
Program Provides Free Eye Exams for Older Persons—June, 244
Special Problems of People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 331-333
Study Shows that Vitamin A Can Slow the Effects of Retinitis Pigmentosa—September, 278
Support Organization for Families—September, 280
Visual Behaviors and Adaptations Associated with Cortical and Ocular Impairment in Children—April, 101-105
EYEGLASSES
Myths about Pinhole Glasses—December, 424

F
FAMILY
Advice for Parents of Children with Disabilities—April, 123-124
Disabled Children and Adoption—December, 426
Early Intervention Services and Minority Families—January, 11
Family Concerns and Older People Who Are Blind—January, 6-11
Guide to Caring for Premature Infants—June, 243
Health Care as a Family Concern—June, 243
Information and Intervention Concerning Disabled Children—January, 25
Interaction between Parents and Children—October, 316
Involving Parents in Their Children's Schoolwork—November, 388
Journal on Parenthood and Disability—September, 276-277
A Model Assessment Program—June, 190-193
A Model for Outreach Technical Assistance—June, 201-203
Parent-Infant Program—June, 208-209
A Parent/Professional Collaboration Model of Transitional Planning—June, 227-229
Siblings of Children with Disabilities—December, 425
Study on the Effects of Early Intervention—June, 242
Support Organization for Families—September, 280
Transitional Services for Youths Who Are Visually Impaired—March, 69-72
FAZZI, DIANE L.
Development of a Preschool "Kiddy Cane"—February, 52-54
FAX: See TELEPHONES
FELLOWSHIPS: See SCHOLARSHIPS
FENNIGAN, JOSEPH P., JR.
Teen Institute—June, 206
FILMS/VIDEOS
Accessibility Issues for Business—December, 424
ADA Overview on Video—October, 314
Assistive Technology Explained in Several Languages—May, 156
Catalog of Teacher Training Videos—March, 88
Communication between Deaf and Hearing Persons—November, 387-388
Demystifying Braille—December, 420
Disability Awareness Video—April, 124
Interaction between Parents and Children—October, 316
Language Courses on Tape—June, 248
Video Course Illuminates the Aging Process—April, 122
Video Demonstrates Communication with Deaf-Blind Persons—June, 242
Video Demonstrating Low Vision Equipment—June, 238
Video Features Deaf-Blind Employee—March, 88
Video on Addiction Prevention—November, 385-386
Video Presentation of Large-Print and Braille Signage—May, 156
Video Profile of Disabled Youths—March, 90
Video Shows How Older Persons Can Participate in Their Communities—April, 120
Video with Audiodescription—January, 27
Video Workshop on the Transition Process—March, 88
Videos Demonstrating Adaptive Skills—March, 88
FINANCIAL AID
See also: GRANTS
Funding for Assistive Technology—December, 416
Guide to Developing Programs for Financing Assistive Technology—June, 238
Lease Program for Braille Notebook Computer—November, 382
FINLAND
A Camp for Blind and Sighted Children in Finland—May, 153-154
FRANCE
France—November, 384-385
FREY, WILLIAM D.
Family Concerns and Older People Who Are Blind—January, 6-11
FRICKER, JOAN
Short-Term Placements: A Crucial Role for Residential Schools—June, 193-198

G
GALLAUDET UNIVERSITY
Gallaudet's School of Education Accredited—March, 92
GELLHAUS, MARVA M.
Using Color and Contrast to Modify the Educational Environment of Visually Impaired Students with Multiple Disabilities—January, 19-20
GERUSCHAT, DUANE R.
Employment and Residential Status of Graduates From a Residential School—June, 234-237 GRANTS
See also: FINANCIAL AID
Addressing the Needs of Older Blind Persons—December, 427
Culturally Sensitive Materials Describing Adaptive Technology—January, 21
Directory of Research Grants—June, 240
Funding for Assistive Technology—December, 416
Grants Available for Research on Aging—February, 59
Grants Focusing on Communications Disorders—January, 27
Grants for Disability Organizations—December, 425
Grants for Projects Benefiting Older Persons—April, 122
Grants for Purchasing Assistive Technology for Library Users—April, 118
National Center for Accessible Media—December, 426
Program Encourages Disabled Persons to Pursue Science and Math Careers—February, 60
Summary of Research Projects at Mississippi State—February, 59
GREAT BRITAIN
Blind and Partially Sighted Adults in Britain: The RNIB Survey (Volume 1), by Ian Bruce, Aubrey McKennell, and Errol Walker; Blind and Partially Sighted Children in Britain: The RNIB Survey (Volume 2), by Errol Walker, Michael Tobin, and Aubrey McKennell, Reviewed by Corinne Kirchner—September, 257-258
Career Expectations of British Visually Impaired Students of School-Leaving Age—June, 209-210

Training for Teachers of Deaf-Blind Students in Britain—February, 58
GRESSET, JACQUES
A Model for the Efficient Interdisciplinary Assessment of Young Visually Impaired Children—December, 410-414
GRIFFING, BARRY L.
A Comparative Study of Residential Schools for Children with Visual Impairments: 1985-1990—June, 216-218
GRIMM, JENNY M.
The Development and Field Testing of Materials on Diabetes for Persons with Low Vision or Low Literacy—November, 347-348
GROENVEND, MARYKE
Visual Behaviors and Adaptations Associated with Cortical and Ocular Impairment in Children—April, 101-105
GUGGENHEIM, MARK
Patient Evaluation of the 7X30 Beecher Mirage Low Vision System—December, 408-409

H
HALPIN, JOHN
How Persons with Visual Impairments Explore Novel Spaces: Strategies of Good and Poor Performers—September, 295-301
HALPIN, ROSE
How Persons with Visual Impairments Explore Novel Spaces: Strategies of Good and Poor Performers—September, 295-301
HALTON, LORRAINE
Orientation and Mobility Assistants—January, 3
HAMILTON, JACQUELINE E.
Nonvisual Adaptive Devices for Measuring Insulin—November, 345-347
HARABEDIAN, BERDJ
Blindness, Diabetes, and Amputation: Alleviation of Depression and Pain through Thermal Biofeedback Therapy—November, 368-371
HARMOR, DANIEL
Short-Term Placements: A Crucial Role for Residential Schools—June, 193-198
HARRIS, GREGORY T.
Teen Institute—June, 206
HATLEN, PHILIP H.
A Personal Odysey on Schools for Blind Children—June, 171-174
HEAD, DANIEL N.
A Comparative Study of Residential Schools for Children with Visual Impairments: 1985-1990—June, 216-218
HEALTH CARE
See also: MEDICAL CARE
Coping with Chronic Illness—December, 423
The Costs of Nursing Home and Home Care—June, 246
Courses for Ophthalmic Assistants—April, 124
Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons at Cleveland Sight Center—November, 352-353
Diabetes Treatment Breakthrough—November, 325-328
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
Health Care as a Family Concern—June, 243
HMO Guide for Ophthalmologists—September, 278
A Layman's Look at Evaluating Health Risks—April, 110
Overhauling the Health Care System—April, 124
Paying for Long-Term Care Insurance: A Pilot Plan—April, 117
Reports on Health Care, Education, and Technology for Persons with Disabilities—April, 124
Review of Health Care in Plans for Future Improvements—January, 27
The Role of the Diabetes Educator—November, 329-330
Study Confirms Need for Regular Eye Exams for Persons with Diabetes—June, 243
Teamwork between the Health Care Community and the Rehabilitation System—November, 349-351
Theme Issue on the Medical Status of Children—June, 242-243
HEALY, WILLIAM C
A Comparative Study of Residential Schools for Children with Visual Impairments: 1985-1990—June, 216-218
HELEN KELLER NATIONAL CENTER (HKNC)
Legislative Changes Regarding Deaf-Blindness—June, 248
Video Demonstrates Communication with Deaf-Blind Persons—June, 242
HILL, EVERETT W.
How Persons with Visual Impairments Explore Novel Spaces: Strategies of Good and Poor Performers—September, 295-301
An Innovative Model for Training Orientation and Mobility Assistants—May, 134-137
HILL, MARC
How Persons with Visual Impairments Explore Novel Spaces: Strategies of Good and Poor Performers—September, 295-301
HILL, MARY-MAUREEN
How Persons with Visual Impairments Explore Novel Spaces: Strategies of Good and Poor Performers—September, 295-301
HINSON, NOREEN
We're Not That Much Different—June, 207
HOTLINES
See also: TELEPHONES
New Central Telephone for Information on Veterans' Benefits—January, 27
HOWE, SAMUEL GRIDLEY
Dr. Samuel Gridley Howe and the Family Tree of Residential Schools—June, 174-176
HOWZE, YVONNE S.
Quality Management in Residential Schools: A Planning Model for Systems Change—June, 185-188
HUERTAS, JUAN ANTONIO
Spatial Representation by Persons Who Are Blind: A Study of the Effects of Learning and Development—February, 37-41
HULL, TIM
Issues in Standardizing Psychometric Tests for Children Who Are Blind—May, 149-150
HUNT, CHERYL
Diabetes Treatment Breakthrough—November, 325-328
The Role of the Diabetes Educator—November, 329-330
HURREN, DIANNE
Needs of Home-Based Older Visually Impaired Persons for Assistive Devices—April, 106-110

I INCLUSION
See also: EDUCATION; RESIDENTIAL SCHOOLS; SPECIAL EDUCATION
Do Myths Associated with Schools for Students Who Are Blind Negatively Affect Placement Decisions?—June, 213-215
Inclusion: What Do We Want It to Mean to Schools for Students with Visual Disabilities—June, 165-168
New and Future Roles for Residential Schools—June, 224-226
INDEPENDENT LIVING SKILLS
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
Independent Living: A Curriculum with Adaptations for Students with Visual Impairments, by Robin Lumiet and Nancy Lovac, Reviewed by Marjorie Kaiser—June, 169
One Way or Another: A Guide to Independence for the Visually Impaired and Their Families, by Vivian Younger and Jill Sardegna, Reviewed by Deborah Kent—March, 67
Rehabilitation Around the World—November, 384
Resource for Nurses—November, 385
Special Problems of People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 331-333
Three Classes of Change to Improve the Daily Living Skills of Persons with Visual Impairment—December, 402-404
Training Outreach Workers to Serve American Indian Elders with Visual Impairment and Diabetes—November, 336-340
Using Color and Contrast to Modify the Educational Environment of Visually Impaired Students with Multiple Disabilities—January, 19-20
Vision and Orientation and Mobility Consultation for Children with Severe Multiple Disabilities—December, 397-401
INFANTS AND PRESCHOOL CHILDREN
See also: CHILDREN
Books Addressing Early Childhood—March, 90-91
Compilation of Readings on Early Childhood—April, 123
Development of a Preschool "Kiddy Cane"—February, 52-54
Early Intervention Tools—December, 426
Guide to Caring for Premature Infants—June, 243
Including a Student with Multiple Disabilities and Visual Impairment in Her Neighborhood School—September, 268-272
Information and Intervention Concerning Disabled Children—January, 25
Mentorship for Early Childhood Professionals—April, 124
Parent-Infant Program—June, 208-209
Study on the Effects of Early Intervention—June, 242
VAP-CAP: A Procedure to Assess the Visual Functioning of Young Visually Impaired Children—February, 46-49
INSURANCE
See also: HEALTH CARE; MEDICAL CARE
Paying for Long-Term Care Insurance: A Pilot Plan—April, 117
INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION RESOURCES
Assistive Technology Explained in Several Languages—May, 156
Call for Assistance for Disabled Children in Russia—February, 58
Call for Information—November, 383
Directory of Services Abroad—November, 384

Information About Aging Populations: At a Glance—January, 20
International Disability Advocacy Group Formed—February, 58
Language Courses on Tape—June, 248
The Political View of Disability—October, 318
Reading Machine Offers Seven Languages—September, 276
Statistics Concerning American Children—March, 90
Study on Assistive Technology—November, 382-383
Tackling Disability Portrayals in the Media—February, 41
Teaching Children with Disabilities Around the World—October, 318
United States: Delegates Sought for International Exchanges—March, 86-88
IRELAND
Ireland—November, 385
ISRAEL
Call for Abstracts on Eye Care—January, 25

J
JACKSON, JOHN
The Unified Braille Code: Some Myths and Realities—December, 395-396
JAN, JAMES E.
Visual Behaviors and Adaptations Associated with Cortical and Ocular Impairment in Children—April, 101-105
JAPAN
Rehabilitation Services for People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment in Japan—November, 359-361
JEPPSSON-GRASSMAN, EVA
The Short Life: The Life-Span Construct of Visually Impaired Adults with Diabetes—November, 371-375
JOEKES, SILVIA
Echolocation: A Study of Auditory Functioning in Blind and Sighted Subjects—March, 73-77
JOHNSON, BEVERLY W.
The Development and Field Testing of Materials on Diabetes for Persons with Low Vision or Low Literacy—November, 347-348
JOHNSON, JUDITH
Short-Term Placements: A Crucial Role for Residential Schools—June, 193-198

K
KALAFAT, JOHN
A Survey of Statewide Self-Help Groups for Older Persons Who Are Visually Impaired—April, 112-114
KARUZA, JURGIS
Needs of Home-Based Older Visually Impaired Persons for Assistive Devices—April, 106-110
KELLEY, PAT
Vision and Orientation and Mobility Consultation for Children with Severe Multiple Disabilities—December, 397-401
KENYA
Kenya—November, 385
KIGER, DONALD G.
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
KINOS, MAIJA-LISA
A Camp for Blind and Sighted Children in Finland—May, 153-154
KIRCHNER, CORINNE
Delivering Blindness Services: A Framework for Policy Debate and Research—April, 99
KOENIG, ALAN J.
An Analysis of Errors in Braille Writing Samples—January, 12-18
KOENIG, PATRICIA J.
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
KOLER, WILLIAM S.
Full Service Utilization through an Exit Orientation: A New Model for Residential Schools—June, 199-201
KOREA
Korea—November, 385
KURZWEIL READING MACHINE
The German School at Middlebury College: New Technology and Old Generosity of Spirit—September, 256

L
LAMB, ANN MARIE
The Education of Youths Who Are Deaf-Blind: Learning Tasks and Teaching Methods—September, 259-262
LANGFORD, PETER E.
VAP-CAP: A Procedure to Assess the Visual Functioning of Young Visually Impaired Children—February, 46-49
LARGE PRINT
See also: BOOKS AND READING; COMPUTERS; CLOSED CIRCUIT TELEVISION (CCTV); LITERACY
Adapting Standardized Academic Tests in Braille and Large Type—December, 405-407
Braille Templates for Keyboards—June, 238
Gardening for Visually Impaired Persons—September, 277
Large-Print Greetings—January, 25
Red Cross Information in Accessible Formats—April, 125
Resource for Nurses—November, 385
Role Models on the Job—December, 420
Two Software Programs for Visually Impaired Researchers—September, 276
Video Presentation of Large-Print and Braille Signage—May, 156
LAW
Tax Law and Disability—November, 386
LEARNING DISABILITIES
Eye Tests and Learning Disabilities—October, 314
LEGISLATION
See also: AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA)
Accessibility Issues for Business—December, 424
Braille Bill Update—May, 131-132
Challenges Facing Residential Schools: A Case Study—June, 204-205
Disability Law—February, 58
Fair Treatment of Disabled Employees—April, 122
From Old Wisdom to Future Trends—June, 183-185
Legal Guide to Ensuring Access at Postsecondary Institutions—February, 59
Legislative Changes Regarding Deaf-Blindness—June, 248
Progress Report on the ADA—November, 386-387
Project Studies Fiscal Issues Related to Special Education—September, 278
Recreation Planning Guides—October, 314
Request for Proposals—December, 425
LEKOTEK
Program Teaches Young Children Adaptive Technology—March, 86
LIBRARIES
Accommodating the Needs of Library Users with Disabilities—April, 122-123
The ADA and Libraries—March, 88
Grants for Purchasing Assistive Technology for Library Users—April, 118
Library of Large-Cell Braille—December, 420
Newsletter on Access to Information by Visually Impaired Persons—September, 277
Pamphlets Introducing Librarians to the Needs of Disabled Clients—September, 277
LISTENING SKILLS
Teaching English as a Second Language in Taiwan—February, 55-58
LITERACY
See also: BOOKS AND READING; BRAILLE; LARGE PRINT
The Development and Field Testing of Materials on Diabetes for Persons with Low Vision or Low Literacy—November, 347-348
LIVING SKILLS: See INDEPENDENT LIVING SKILLS
LOFTER, MARNEY M.
Full Service Utilization through an Exit Orientation: A New Model for Residential Schools—June, 199-201
LOW VISION
See also: EYE DISORDERS AND DISEASES; LARGE PRINT
Characteristics of Students Evaluated at a Residential School's Low Vision Clinics: 1981-1991—June, 180-182
The Chicago Lighthouse—October, 317
Columbia Lighthouse for the Blind—September, 280
The Development and Field Testing of Materials on Diabetes for Persons with Low Vision or Low Literacy—November, 347-348
Guidelines for Low Vision Specialists—November, 382
The Improvement of Vision by Vision Stimulation and Training: A Review of the Literature—May, 143-148
Low Vision and Aging—December, 422
The Management of Low Vision in Children: Report of the 1992 World Health Organization Consultation—October, 307-309
Optometric Management of Visual Handicap, by Helen Farrall, Reviewed by Alfred A.Rosenbloom—May, 133
Patient Evaluation of the 7X30 Beecher Mirage Low Vision System—December, 408-409
Resource for Nurses—November, 385
Severe Visual Impairment in the United States and in Each State, 1990—March, 80-85
Using Color and Contrast to Modify the Educational Environment of Visually Impaired Students with Multiple Disabilities—January, 19-20
VAP-CAP: A Procedure to Assess the Visual Functioning of Young Visually Impaired Children—February, 46-49
We're Not That Much Different—June, 207
LOW VISION DEVICES
Characteristics of Students Evaluated at a Residential School's Low Vision Clinics: 1981-1991—June, 180-182
Guidelines for Low Vision Specialists—November, 382
Low Vision Device Uses Video Cameras That Manipulate the Environment—May, 150
Low Vision Software—December, 416
Optometric Management of Visual Handicap, by Helen Farrall, Reviewed by Alfred A. Rosenbloom—May, 133
Portable Scanner—March, 85-86
A Review of Two Low-Cost Closed Circuit Television Systems—October, 310-313

Spectacle Binoculars—March, 86
Update of Screen Magnification Program—September, 276
Video Demonstrating Low Vision Equipment—June, 238
LUXTON, LYNNE
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382

M
MADDOCK, JERRY
A Comparative Study of Residential Schools for Children with Visual Impairments: 1985-1990—June, 216-218
MAGAZINES/NEWSLETTERS
See also: NEWPAPERS/JOURNALS
Canada—November, 384
Current-Events Magazine on Cassette—March, 90
Disabled Persons and Substance Abuse—March, 91
France—November, 384-385
Free Tape and Braille Magazine—October, 315
French Magazine on Focusing on Disability—October, 318
Magazine about Educational Technology—September, 276
Magazine Highlights Access and Advocacy—April, 123
Magazine on Accessible Sports and Recreation—May, 156
Magazine Promoting Career Advancement—May, 156
Newsletter for Itinerant Teachers—June, 240
Newsletter for Jobs in the Arts—December, 420
Newsletter on Access to Information by Visually Impaired Persons—September, 277
Newsletter on Assistive Technology—September, 276
Nonprofit Explains Disability-Benefits System—March, 90
Pacific Islands: Newsletter on Activities—March, 86
Portugal—November, 385
South Africa—November, 385
Tackling Disability Portrayals in the Media—February, 41
Technical Newsletters—November, 382
Theme Issue on Disabled Children and Sexual Abuse—January, 25
Uganda—November, 385
MANN, WILLIAM C.
Needs of Home-Based Older Visually Impaired Persons for Assistive Devices—April, 106-110
MAPS
Tactile Maps—January, 25
Tactile Maps—June, 244
MARMION, SHELLY
The Education of Youths Who Are Deaf-Blind: Learning Tasks and Teaching Methods—September, 259-262
MARTIN, ROBIN D.
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
MARYLAND SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND
We're Not That Much Different—June, 207
MASON, HEATHER
Issues in Standardizing Psychometric Tests for Children Who Are Blind—May, 149-150
MATHEMATICS
New Braille Code for Advanced Mathematics—December, 414
Program Encourages Disabled Persons to Pursue Science and Math Careers—February, 60
MAXSON, B. J.
The Education of Youths Who Are Deaf-Blind: Learning Tasks and Teaching Methods—September, 259-262
MCBROOM, LYNN W.
Transitional Services for Youths Who Are Visually Impaired—March, 69-72
MCCARTNEY, BRIAN D.
Challenges Facing Residential Schools: A Case Study—June, 204-205
MCCONNELL, JOHN
Short-Term Placements: A Crucial Role for Residential Schools—June, 193-198
MCCRIMMON, DAN
The Effects of Regular Exercise Programs for Visually Impaired and Sighted Schoolchildren—February, 50-52
MCCUSPIE, P. A.
Short-Term Placements: A Crucial Role for Residential Schools—June, 193-198
MEDICAID
Paying for Long-Term Care Insurance: A Pilot Plan—April, 117
MEDICAL CARE
See also: HEALTH CARE
Complications of Diabetes and Their Implications for Service Providers—November, 354-358
Gap in Medical Care for Older Persons—March, 77
Program Provides Free Eye Exams for Older Persons—June, 244
Rehabilitation Services for People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment in Japan—November, 359-361
Study Shows that Vitamin A Can Slow the Effects of Retinitis Pigmentosa—September, 278
Theme Issue on the Medical Status of Children—June, 242-243
MEDICAL RESEARCH
See also: EYE DISORDERS AND DISEASES
Call for Abstracts on Eye Care—January, 25
Diabetes Treatment Breakthrough—November, 325-328
Is Cataract Surgery Always Worth the Risk?—September, 258
Study Links Lack of Blood Sugar Maintenance with Severe Diabetic Eye Disease—April, 105
MEDICARE
Report Shows Unmet Need for Rehabilitation Services—March, 91
MELARAGNO, MICHELE
Breaking the Barriers to the Design Professions for Visually Impaired Persons—December, 396
MERRILL, JANE L.
Support Groups for Persons with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 376-377
METTLER, RICHARD
Normal Science and Mobility Instruction—February, 42-45
MICHIGAN SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND
Challenges Facing Residential Schools: A Case Study—June, 204-205
MILLER CYRIL
A Model for Outreach Technical Assistance—June, 201-203
MILLER, GERALD
Delivering Blindness Services: A Framework for Policy Debate and Research—April, 99
MINORITIES
Culturally Sensitive Materials Describing Adaptive Technology—January, 21
Early Intervention Services and Minority Families—January, 11
Report Focuses on Needs of Minority Elders—April, 120
MOBILITY: See MOBILITY DEVICES; ORIENTATION AND MOBILITY
MOBILITY DEVICES
Electronic Travel Aid—March, 86
Mobility Device Redesigned—February, 55
Precane Devices in a Residential School Setting—June, 205-206
MOTOR SKILLS
See also: ORIENTATION AND MOBILITY
Visual Behaviors and Adaptations Associated with Cortical and Ocular Impairment in Children—April, 101-105
MOYANO, HORACIO FERREYRA
Echolocation: A Study of Auditory Functioning in Blind and Sighted Subjects—March, 73-77
MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS
Lottery for Multiple Sclerosis Drug—December, 423
MULTIPLE HANDICAPS
Including a Student with Multiple Disabilities and Visual Impairment in Her Neighborhood School—September, 268-272
A Model for the Efficient Interdisciplinary Assessment of Young Visually Impaired Children—December, 410-414
Prelanguage Communication of Students Who Are Deaf-Blind and Have Other Severe Impairments—October, 302-307
Transitional Services for Youths Who Are Visually Impaired—March, 69-72
Using Color and Contrast to Modify the Educational Environment of Visually Impaired Students with Multiple Disabilities—January, 19-20
Vision and Orientation and Mobility Consultation for Children with Severe Multiple Disabilities—December, 397-401
MUSEUMS
Museum in Madrid Emphasizes Tactile Exploration—April, 100

N
NATIONAL AERONAUTICS AND SPACE ASSOCIATION (NASA)
Low Vision Device Uses Video Cameras That Manipulate the Environment—May, 150
NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR VISUALLY HANDICAPPED
Program for Information and Social Gathering—January, 27
NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR RESEARCH ON WOMEN
Publications Investigate Women's Issues—February, 61
NATIONAL EASTER SEAL SOCIETY
Database for Organizations Seeking Disabled Applicants—June, 244
Newsletter on Assistive Technology—September, 276
Teaching Aid to Promote Disability Sensitivity—February, 60
NATIONAL FEDERATION OF THE BLIND (NFB)
Cookbook in Braille—September, 278-280
A Peer Support Network for Blind People with Diabetes—November, 377
NATIONAL LIBRARY SERVICE FOR THE BLIND AND PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED (NLS)
See also: LIBRARIES
Brochure on NLS Services—June, 248

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION
Program Encourages Disabled Persons to Pursue Science and Math Careers—February, 60
NATIVE AMERICANS
Training Outreach Workers to Serve American Indian Elders with Visual Impairment and Diabetes—November, 336-340
NEEDHAM, WALTER E.
Blindness, Diabetes, and Amputation: Alleviation of Depression and Pain through Thermal Biofeedback Therapy—November, 368-371
Diabetes Treatment Breakthrough—November, 325-328
NELSON, KATHERINE A.
Severe Visual Impairment in the United States and in Each State, 1990—March, 80-85
NEW YORK STATE COMMISSION FOR THE BLIND AND VISUALLY IMPAIRED (CBVI)
An Off-Campus College Program to Prepare Rehabilitation Teachers of Visually Impaired Students—September, 273-274
NEW ZEALAND
Including a Student with Multiple Disabilities and Visual Impairment in Her Neighborhood School—September, 268-272
NEWSPAPERS/JOURNALS
See also: MAGAZINES/NEWSLETTERS
Belgium: Leading Flemish Newspaper Now Available in Braille—March, 86
Compilation of Disability Information—October, 316
Disability Magazine with Jewish Focus—November, 388
Electronic Newspaper in United Kingdom—June, 240
Europe: Report on Digital Newspapers—March, 86
Ireland—November, 385
Journal on Parenthood and Disability—September, 276-277
New Journal Addresses Assistive Technology—February, 55
Newspapers on Electronic Networks—December, 416
A Peer Support Network for Blind People with Diabetes—November, 377
Russia—November, 385
Software Creates Digital Versions of Newspapers—April, 118
Theme Issue on the Medical Status of Children—June, 242-243
NIGERIA
Evaluation of a Workshop on Teaching Science to Visually Impaired Children in Nigeria—December, 416-420
Teaching Blind and Low Vision Children, by C. K. Sykes and E. D. Ozoji, Reviewed by Gale R. Watson—January, 3-5
NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS
Dating Service for Disabled Persons—December, 425
Directory of Research Grants—June, 240
A National Volunteer Program: What It Would Mean for Nonprofits—February, 45
New Organization Serves Developing Countries—November, 384
Nonprofit Explains Disability-Benefits System—March, 90
Resources for Nonprofits—March, 92
NURSING HOMES
Paying for Long-Term Care Insurance: A Pilot Plan—April, 117
NUTRITION
Two Exercise Programs for People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 365-367
NYE, JOSEPH
An Off-Campus College Program to Prepare Rehabilitation Teachers of Visually Impaired Students—September, 273-274
NYMAN, JAMES S.
Normal Science and Mobility Instruction—February, 42-45

O
OCHAITA, ESPERANZA
Spatial Representation by Persons Who Are Blind: A Study of the Effects of Learning and Development—February, 37-41
OLSON, MYRNA R.
Using Color and Contrast to Modify the Educational Environment of Visually Impaired Students with Multiple Disabilities—January, 19-20
OPHTHALMOLOGY
See also: PROFESSIONAL TRAINING
Courses for Ophthalmic Assistants—April, 124
HMO Guide for Ophthalmologists—September, 278
Ophthalmology for Beginners—April, 124
Ophthalmology Monograph—December, 423-424
Revised Edition of Eye Care Textbook—December, 423
OPTICAL CHARACTER RECOGNITION (OCR)
Reading Machine Offers Seven Languages—September, 276
Reading System—December, 416
OPTICAL DEVICES
See also: LOW VISION DEVICES; SCANNERS
Characteristics of Students Evaluated at a Residential School's Low Vision Clinics: 1981-1991—June, 180-182
Eschenbach Optik's New Product Catalog—September, 276
Full Field Prismatic Eyewear—March, 86
Package for Cleaning Magnifiers—June, 238.
Patient Evaluation of the 7X30 Beecher Mirage Low Vision System—December, 408-409
Series of Hand-Held Magnifiers—February, 55
Stand Magnifier Adjusts without Distorting—April, 118
ORGANIZATIONAL UPDATES
New Address—June, 246
New Address and Leader for International Organization—June, 238-240
ORIENTATION AND MOBILITY
See also MOBILITY DEVICES; MOTOR SKILLS
Call for Information—November, 383
Confessions of an Orientation and Mobility Technician—October, 287
Development of a Preschool "Kiddy Cane"—February, 52-54
How Persons with Visual Impairments Explore Novel Spaces: Strategies of Good and Poor Performers—September, 295-301
An Innovative Model for Training Orientation and Mobility Assistants—May, 134-137
Investigating Stress Associated with Mobility Training Through Consumer Discussion Groups—April, 111-112
A Laboratory Evaluation of the Strength of the Joints of the WCIB Folding Cane and the Mahler Improved Heavy-Duty Folding Cane—May, 152-153
Learning and Development—February, 37-41
Mobility Device Redesigned—February, 55
Normal Science and Mobility Instruction—February, 42-45
O&M Textbook—October, 315
Orientation and Mobility Assistants—January, 3
Precane Devices in a Residential School Setting—June, 205-206
Spatial Representation by Persons Who Are Blind: A Study of the Effects of Vision and Orientation and Mobility Consultation for Children with Severe Multiple Disabilities—December, 397-401
ORR, ALBERTA L.
Training Outreach Workers to Serve American Indian Elders with Visual Impairment and Diabetes—November, 336-340
OZOJI, E. D.
Evaluation of a Workshop on Teaching Science to Visually Impaired Children in Nigeria—December, 416-420

P
PACIFIC ISLANDS
Pacific Islands: Newsletter on Activities—March, 86
PERFILIEVA, LUDMILA
The Life of Blind People in Russia—January, 22-25
PERKINS SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND
Dr. Samuel Gridley Howe and the Family Tree of Residential Schools—June, 174-176
Educational Programs for Blind Children: A Kaleidiscopic View—June, 177-180
PETZINGER, RUTH ANN
Adaptive Blood Glucose Monitoring and Insulin Measurement Devices for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 341-345
Diabetes Treatment Breakthrough—November, 325-328
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
PHYSICAL EDUCATION
See also: EXERCISE
The Effects of Regular Exercise Programs for Visually Impaired and Sighted Schoolchildren—February, 50-52
Teaching Gym—November, 388
Teaching Gym—October, 315
PIMM, MARK
Career Expectations of British Visually Impaired Students of School-Leaving Age—June, 209-210
POGRUND, RONA L.
Development of a Preschool "Kiddy Cane"—February, 52-54
PONCHILLIA, SUSAN V.
Complications of Diabetes and Their Implications for Service Providers—November, 354-358
Diabetes Treatment Breakthrough—November, 325-328
The Effect of Cultural Beliefs on the Treatment of Native Peoples with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 333-335
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
PROFESSIONAL TRAINING
See also: COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES; CONFERENCES
Accessible Environments without the Stigma—October, 314
Australia's Master's Program for Teachers of Visually Impaired Students—October, 318

Books for Teachers of Young Children—December, 427
Braille Mentors Sought—March, 88
Call for Information—November, 383
Catalog—November, 388
Catalog of Teacher Training Videos—March, 88
A Comparative Study of Residential Schools for Children with Visual Impairments: 1985-1990—June, 216-218
Confessions of an Orientation and Mobility Technician—October, 287
Courses for Ophthalmic Assistants—April, 124
Curriculum for AIDS Prevention—October, 313
Early Intervention Tools—December, 426
Educational Programs for Blind Children: A Kaleidiscopic View—June, 177-180
Evaluation of a Workshop on Teaching Science to Visually Impaired Children in Nigeria—December, 416-420
Eye Care and AIDS—October, 314
Gallaudet's School of Education Accredited—March, 92
Guide for Eye Care—November, 385
Guide to Caring for Premature Infants—June, 243
Guide to Software and Copyright Law—June, 238
Guidelines for Low Vision Specialists—November, 328
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
Independent Living: A Curriculum with Adaptations for Students with Visual Impairments, by Robin Lumiet and Nancy Lovac, Reviewed by Marjorie Kaiser—June, 169
An Innovative Model for Training Orientation and Mobility Assistants—May, 134-137
Interaction between Parents and Children—October, 316
Introduction to Culturally-Sensitive Caregiving—June, 243
The Management of Low Vision in Children: Report of the 1992 World Health Organization Consultation—October, 307-309
A Model for the Efficient Interdisciplinary Assessment of Young Visually Impaired Children—December, 410-414
New Organization Serves Developing Countries—November, 384
New Program in Disability Studies—June, 242
New Program to Train Rehabilitation Teachers—September, 278
Newsletter for Itinerant Teachers—June, 240
O&M Textbook—October, 315
An Off-Campus College Program to Prepare Rehabilitation Teachers of Visually Impaired Students—September, 273-274
Optometric Management of Visual Handicap, by Helen Farrall, Reviewed by Alfred A. Rosenbloom—May, 133
Orientation and Mobility Assistants—January, 3
Parent-Infant Program—June, 208-209
Program Encourages Disabled Persons to Pursue Science and Math Careers—February, 60
Program of Technical Information and Support—June, 238
Resource for Nurses—November, 385
Resource for Teachers of Young Children—November, 388
Revised Edition of Eye Care Textbook—December, 423
The Role of the Diabetes Educator—November, 329-330
School Management Program—December, 416
Teaching Gym—November, 388
Training for Teachers of Deaf-Blind Students in Britain—February, 58
Training Outreach Workers to Serve American Indian Elders with Visual Impairment and Diabetes—November, 336-340
Video Course Illuminates the Aging Process—April, 122
Visual Impairment and Diabetes: A Personal and Professional Perspective—November, 329
PSYCHOLOGY
See also: ADJUSTMENT
Blindness, Diabetes, and Amputation: Alleviation of Depression and Pain through Thermal Biofeedback Therapy—November, 368-371
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
Investigating Stress Associated with Mobility Training through Consumer Discussion Groups—April, 111-112
The Short Life: The Life-Span Construct of Visually Impaired Adults with Diabetes—November, 371-375
Support Groups for Persons with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 376-377

R
READING: See BOOKS AND READING; BRAILLE; LARGE PRINT; LITERACY
REARDON, ANNE WHITTINGTON
The Development and Field Testing of Materials on Diabetes for Persons with Low Vision or Low Literacy—November, 347-348
Visual Impairment and Diabetes: A Personal and Professional Perspective—November, 329
RECREATION
Camp with Sessions for Children and Adults—February, 59
Game Using Names of Disabled Celebrities—February, 59
Gardening for Visually Impaired Persons—September, 277
Magazine on Accessible Sports and Recreation—May, 156
Nature Trips for Disabled and Nondisabled Adventurers—April, 120
Program for Blind Sailors Seeks Sighted Guides—February, 59
Recreation Planning Guides—October, 314
Recreational and Educational Get-Away in Spain—June, 240
Recreational Fishing for People with Disabilities—March 90
Recreational Products—January, 27
Skiing Expedition—October, 314
Vision and Orientation and Mobility Consultation for Children with Severe Multiple Disabilities—December, 397-401
Summary of Research Projects at Mississippi State—February, 59
REHABILITATION
See also: ADJUSTMENT; SERVICE DELIVERY
Complications of Diabetes and Their Implications for Service Providers—November, 354-358
Kenya—November, 385
The Life of Blind People in Russia—January, 22-25
New Organization Serves Developing Countries—November, 384
Rehabilitation Services for People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment in Japan—November, 359-361
Report Shows Unmet Need for Rehabilitation Services—March, 91
Teamwork between the Health Care Community and the Rehabilitation System—November, 349-351
REHABILITATION RESEARCH AND TRAINING CENTER (RRTC)
Mississippi State University—October, 317
RELIGION
Audiotape on Catholic Theology—February, 60-61
Instructions for Making Religious Facilities Accessible—May, 156
RESEARCH
See also: MEDICAL RESEARCH
Acoustical Society Honors Reading-Machine Pioneer—December, 416
Call for Papers—April, 120
Call for Papers—April, 122
Call for Papers on Work with Visually Impaired Children—January, 25
Danger of Eye Injuries to Baseball Players—April, 105
Erata—June, 240
Europe: Research on Audio Description Technology—March, 86
Grants Available for Research on Aging—February, 59
Grants Focusing on Communications Disorders—January, 27
Monographs on Sensory Training—February, 59
Summary of Research Projects at Mississippi State—February, 59
RESIDENTIAL SCHOOLS
See also: EDUCATION; SPECIAL EDUCATION
Career Expectations of British Visually Impaired Students of School-Leaving Age—June, 209-210
Challenges Facing Residential Schools: A Case Study– June, 204-205
Characteristics of Students Evaluated at a Residential School's Low Vision Clinics: 1981-1991—June, 180-182
A Comparative Study of Residential Schools for Children with Visual Impairments: 1985-1990—June, 216-218
Council of Schools for the Blind—June, 204
Cultural Diversity in Action—June, 188-190
Do Myths Associated with Schools for Students Who Are Blind Negatively Effect Placement Decisions?—June, 213-215
Dr. Samuel Gridley Howe and the Family Tree of Residential Schools—June, 174-176
Educational Programs for Blind Children: A Kaleidiscopic View—June, 177-180
Employment and Residential Status of Graduates From a Residential School—June, 234-237
Employment Status and Quality of Life of Graduates of a Residential School—June, 229-233
From Old Wisdom to Future Trends—June, 183-185
Full Service Utilization through an Exit Orientation: A New Model for Residential Schools—June, 199-201
Inclusion: What Do We Want It to Mean to Schools for Students with Visual Disabilities—June, 165-168
A Model Assessment Program—June, 190-193

A Model for Outreach Technical Assistance—June, 201-203
New and Future Roles for Residential Schools—June, 224-226
New Organization for Residential School Principals and Supervisors—June, 240
A Parent/Professional Collaboration Model of Transitional Planning—June, 227-229
A Personal Odyssey on Schools for Blind Children—June, 171-174
Precane Devices in a Residential School Setting—June, 205-206
Providing Services to All Children with Visual Impairments in a Rural State—June, 207-208
Quality Management in Residential Schools: A Planning Model for Systems Change—June, 185-188
Residential Schools: An Underutilized Resource—June, 211-212
The Road Last Traveled: New Directions for Schools for Students with Visual Impairments—June, 219-223
Short-Term Placements: A Crucial Role for Residential Schools—June, 193-198
RICE, KATIE
Teen Institute—June, 206
RICHARDSON, JANELLE
Three Classes of Change to Improve the Daily Living Skills of Persons with Visual Impairment—December, 402-404
RIESER, JOHN J.
How Persons with Visual Impairments Explore Novel Spaces: Strategies of Good and Poor Performers—September, 295-301
ROBINSIN, J.
A Survey of Blind and Partially Sighted Adults in Great Britain—March, 78-79
ROSENTHAL, JEANNE L.
Special Problems of People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 331-333
ROY, A. W. N.
Career Expectations of British Visually Impaired Students of School-Leaving Age—June, 209-210
ROYAL NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR THE BLIND (RNIB)
Adaptive Products for Preparing Food—March, 90
Blind and Partially Sighted Adults in Britain: The RNIB Survey (Volume 1), by Ian Bruce, Aubrey McKennell, and Errol Walker; Blind and Partially Sighted Children in Britain: The RNIB Survey (Volume 2), by Errol Walker, Michael Tobin, and Aubrey McKennell, Reviewed by Corinne Kirchner—September, 257-258
Eye Tests and Learning Disabilities—October, 314
Guide to Accessing Graphical User Interfaces—January, 21
Newsletter on Access to Information by Visually Impaired Persons—September, 277
Recreational Products—January, 27
A Survey of Blind and Partially Sighted Adults in Great Britain—March, 78-79
Teaching Gym—November, 388
Teaching Gym—October, 315
ROYAL VICTORIAN INSTITUTE FOR THE BLIND (RVIB)
Two Exercise Programs for People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment—November, 365-367
VAP-CAP: A Procedure to Assess the Visual Functioning of Young Visually Impaired Children—February, 46-49
RUSSIA
Call for Assistance for Disabled Children in Russia—February, 58
The Life of Blind People in Russia—January, 22-25
Russia—November, 385

S

SAFETY
Automobile Accidents and Drivers Over 65—September, 280
SAILING
Program for Blind Sailors Seeks Sighted Guides—February 59
SANSCHAGRIN, SUZANNE
A Model for the Efficient Interdisciplinary Assessment of Young Visually Impaired Children—December, 410-414
SANSPREE, MARY JEAN
Vision and Orientation and Mobility Consultation for Children with Severe Multiple Disabilities—December, 397-401
SAWA, REIKO
Rehabilitation Services for People with Diabetes and Visual Impairment in Japan—November, 359-361
SCANNERS
See also: OPTICAL DEVICES
Low Vision Software—December, 416
Portable Scanner—March, 85-86
Portable Scanner with Speech—February, 55
Reading Machine with Increased Speed—January, 21
Scan and Speak Software—June, 238
SCHOLARSHIPS
Program Encourages Disabled Persons to Pursue Science and Math Careers—February, 60
Scholarships Available—December, 420-422
Scholarships for Dependents of Blinded Veterans—March, 88
United States: Delegates Sought for International Exchanges—March, 86-88
SCHOLL, GERALDINE T.
Educational Programs for Blind Children: A Kaleidiscopic View—June, 177-180
SCHREIER, ELLIOT M.
Development of a Preschool "Kiddy Cane"—February, 52-54
SCHUCKERS, PENNY L.
The Development and Field Testing of Materials on Diabetes for Persons with Low Vision or Low Literacy—November, 347-348
SCHULZ, JOYCE M.
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
SCIENCE
Evaluation of a Workshop on Teaching Science to Visually Impaired Children in Nigeria—December, 416-420
Program Encourages Disabled Persons to Pursue Science and Math Careers—February, 60
SCOTT, FIONA
Career Expectations of British Visually Impaired Students of School-Leaving Age—June, 209-210
SELF-HELP GROUPS
A Survey of Statewide Self-Help Groups for Older Persons Who Are Visually Impaired—April, 112-114
SERVICE DELIVERY
See also: REHABILITATION
The Chicago Lighthouse—October, 317
Columbia Lighthouse for the Blind—September, 280
A Comparative Study of Residential Schools for Children with Visual Impairments: 1985-1990—June, 216-218
Delivering Blindness Services: A Framework for Policy Debate and Research—April, 99
Full Service Utilization through an Exit Orientation: A New Model for Residential Schools—June, 199-201
Mississippi State University—October, 317
A Model for Outreach Technical Assistance—June, 201-203
New and Future Roles for Residential Schools—June, 224-226
Project Studies Fiscal Issues Related to Special Education—September, 278
Providing Services to All Children with Visual Impairments in a Rural State—June, 207-208
Residential Schools: An Underutilized Resource—June, 211-212
Results of Meeting on General and Specialized Services for Blind Persons—March, 91
The Road Last Traveled: New Directions for Schools for Students with Visual Impairments—June, 219-223
A Survey of Blind and Partially Sighted Adults in Great Britain—March, 78-79
Transitional Services for Youths Who Are Visually Impaired—March, 69-72
SEX EDUCATION
Disability and Sexuality—October, 315-316
Theme Issue on Disabled Children and Sexual Abuse—January, 25
SEYBOLD, DIANA
Investigating Stress Associated with Mobility Training through Consumer Discussion Groups—April, 111-112
SHAW, RONA
An Off-Campus College Program to Prepare Rehabilitation Teachers of Visually Impaired Students—September, 273-274
SIKKA, ANJOO
Prelanguage Communication of Students Who Are Deaf-Blind and Have Other Severe Impairments—October, 302-307
SISKIND, THERESA G.
The Instructional Validity of Statewide Criterion-Referenced Tests for Students Who Are Visually Impaired—April, 115-117
SMITH, DOROTHY P.
Parent-Infant Program—June, 208-209
SOCIAL SKILLS
Dating Service for Disabled Persons—December, 425
Social Participation of Young Children with Visual Impairments in Specialized and Integrated Environments—May, 138-142
SOUTH AFRICA
South Africa—November, 385
South Africa: A Survey of Attitudes toward Employing Blind Teachers in Schools for Sighted Children—April, 118-120
SPACE PERCEPTION
Echolocation: A Study of Auditory Functioning in Blind and Sighted Subjects—March, 73-77
How Persons with Visual Impairments Explore Novel Spaces: Strategies of Good and Poor Performers—September, 295-301
Spatial Representation by Persons Who Are Blind: A Study of the Effects of Learning and Development—February, 37-41
SPAIN
Braille Pocket Computer in Spanish—September, 276
Museum in Madrid Emphasizes Tactile Exploration—April, 100

Recreational and Educational Get-Away in Spain—June, 240
SPECIAL EDUCATION
See also: COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES; EDUCATION; LITERACY; PROFESSIONAL TRAINING; RESIDENTIAL SCHOOLS
Addressing Unique Educational Needs of Individuals with Disabilities: An Outcome-Based Approach, by Disabilities Research Systems, Reviewed by Bill Davis—June, 168-169
Cultural Diversity in Action—June, 188-190
Dr. Samuel Gridley Howe and the Family Tree of Residential Schools—June, 174-176
The Education of Youths Who Are Deaf-Blind: Learning Tasks and Teaching Methods—September, 259-262
Educational Programs for Blind Children: A Kaleidiscopic View—June, 177-180
Evaluation of a Workshop on Teaching Science to Visually Impaired Children in Nigeria—December, 416-420
From Old Wisdom to Future Trends—June, 183-185
Full Service Utilization through an Exit Orientation: A New Model for Residential Schools—June, 199-201
Guide to Working with Deaf-Blind Adults—April, 120
Including a Student with Multiple Disabilities and Visual Impairment in Her Neighborhood School—September, 268-272
Inclusion: What Do We Want It to Mean to Schools for Students with Visual Disabilities—June, 165-168
Kenya—November, 385
Mainstreaming in Europe—October, 318
A Model Assessment Program—June, 190-193
A Personal Odyssey on Schools for Blind Children—June, 171-174
Project Studies Fiscal Issues Related to Special Education—September, 278
Short-Term Placements: A Crucial Role for Residential Schools—June, 193-198
Teaching Blind and Low Vision Children, by C. K. Sykes and E. D. Ozoji, Reviewed by Gale R. Watson—January, 3-5
Teaching Children with Disabilities around the World—October, 318
Teaching Children with Visual Impairments, by Anthony B. Best, Reviewed by Stuart H. Wittenstein—February, 36
Teaching English as a Second Language in Taiwan—February, 55-58
Teaching Manual from Austria—February, 58
Training for Teachers of Deaf-Blind Students in Britain—February, 58
Videos Demonstrating Adaptive Skills—March, 88
Vision and Orientation and Mobility Consultation for Children with Severe Multiple Disabilities—December, 397-401
SPORTS
Danger of Eye Injuries to Baseball Players—April, 105
Magazine on Accessible Sports and Recreation—May, 156
Recreational Fishing for People with Disabilities—March, 90
Sports for Blind Athletes—October, 314-315
STACHURA, MAX E.
The Development and Field Testing of Materials on Diabetes for Persons with Low Vision or Low Literacy—November, 347-348
STATISTICS
Two Software Programs for Visually Impaired Researchers—September, 276
STELMACK, JOAN
Patient Evaluation of the 7X30 Beecher Mirage Low Vision System—December, 408-409
STENOHEM, DEAN O.
Residential Schools: An Underutilized Resource—June, 211-212
STEREOTYPIC BEHAVIORS
Visual Behaviors and Adaptations Associated with Cortical and Ocular Impairment in Children—April, 101-105
STEVENS, NOEL E.
Cultural Diversity in Action—June, 188-190
STOVALL, JAMES
The Effects of Regular Exercise Programs for Visually Impaired and Sighted Schoolchildren—February, 50-52
STUART, IAN
Characteristics of Students Evaluated at a Residential School's Low Vision Clinics: 1981-1991—June, 180-182
SUBSTANCE ABUSE: See ALCOHOLISM; DRUG ABUSE
SYNTHETIC SPEECH
Acoustical Society Honors Reading-Machine Pioneer—December, 416
Braille Access Device—December, 416
Braille Pocket Computer in Spanish—September, 276
Portable Scanner with Speech—February, 55
Reading Machine Offers Seven Languages—September, 276
Scan and Speak Software—June, 238
Screen-Access Program—November, 383
Software Creates Digital Versions of Newspapers—April, 118
Speech Accessible Credit Card Terminals—June, 238
Speech Synthesis: Technology for Disabled Persons, by Alistair D. N. Edwards, Reviewed by Mark M. Uslan—March, 67-68
Two Software Programs for Visually Impaired Researchers—September, 276

T
TACTILE SKILLS
Complications of Diabetes and Their Implications for Service Providers—November, 354-358
System for Marking Clothing—November, 386
TAFT, SUSAN H.
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
TAIWAN
Teaching English as a Second Language in Taiwan—February, 55-58
TAPE CASSETTES
Accessible Catalogs for Home Shopping—November, 386
Aerobics Tape with Verbal Explanation—May, 156
Audiotape Cooking Classes—February, 59
Audiotape on Catholic Theology—February, 60-61
Audiotapes on Diabetic Self-Care—April, 124
Courses for Ophthalmic Assistants—April, 124
Current-Events Magazine on Cassette—March, 90
Emergency Instructions in Braille and on Tape—April, 125
Free Tape and Braille Magazine—October, 315
Gardening for Visually Impaired Persons—September, 277
The German School at Middlebury College: New Technology and Old Generosity of Spirit—September, 256
Language Courses on Tape—June, 248
Newsletter on Access to Information by Visually Impaired Persons—September, 277
Role Models on the Job—December, 420
Theme Issue on Disabled Children and Sexual Abuse—January, 25
TAVERNIER, GEERT G. F.
The Improvement of Vision by Vision Stimulation and Training: A Review of the Literature—May, 143-148
TAXES
Tax Law and Disability—November, 386
TEASLEY, MARILYN L.
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
TECHNOLOGY
See also: ADAPTIVE DEVICES; COMPUTERS; OPTICAL DEVICES; SYNTHETIC SPEECH
The Americans with Disabilities Act: From Policy to Practice, by Jane West, Reviewed by Kathleen Megivern—April, 99-100
Assistive Technology Explained in Several Languages—May, 156
Catalog of Adaptive Technology—February, 55
Culturally Sensitive Materials Describing Adaptive Technology—January, 21
Electronic Newspaper in United Kingdom—June, 240
Grants for Purchasing Assistive Technology for Library Users—April, 118
Guide to Developing Programs for Financing Assistive Technology—June, 238
Loans for Purchasing Adaptive Technology—February, 55
New Reading System—November, 383
Program Gives Access to Volunteer Readers Via Fax—April, 118
Program of Technical Information and Support—June, 238
Program Teaches Young Children Adaptive Technology—March, 86
Reading Machine in an Advanced Version—September, 276
Reading System—December, 416
Reports on Health Care, Education, and Technology for Persons with Disabilities—April, 124
Solutions: Access Technology for People Who Are Blind, by Diane Croft and Olga Espenola, Reviewed by Jeffrey Moyer—February, 35
Speech Synthesis: Technology for Disabled Persons, by Alistair D. N. Edwards, Reviewed by Mark M. Uslan—March, 67-68
Study on Assistive Technology—November, 382-383
"Virtual Vision" Technology: Visors for Personal Viewing—September, 276
TEDDER, NORMA E.
The Education of Youths Who Are Deaf-Blind: Learning Tasks and Teaching Methods—September, 259-262
Prelanguage Communication of Students Who Are Deaf-Blind and Have Other Severe Impairments—October, 302-307
Transitional Services for Youths Who Are Visually Impaired—March, 69-72

TELEPHONES
Program Gives Access to Volunteer Readers Via Fax—April, 118
TELEVISION
Images of Disability on Television, by Guy Cumberbatch and Ralph Negrine, Reviewed by Michael J. Bina—October, 287-288
National Center for Accessible Media—December, 426
TESTS AND TESTING
See also: ASSESSMENT
Adapting Standardized Academic Tests in Braille and Large Type—December, 405-407
Catalog—November, 388
Guide to Ensuring Testing Accommodations—February, 59
The Instructional Validity of Statewide Criterion-Referenced Tests for Students Who Are Visually Impaired—April, 115-117
Issues in Standardizing Psychometric Tests for Children Who Are Blind—May, 149-150
Learning and Study Strategies of Secondary School Students with Visual Impairments—September, 263-267
TEXAS SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND AND VISUALLY IMPAIRED
Full Service Utilization through an Exit Orientation: A New Model for Residential Schools—June, 199-201
A Model for Outreach Technical Assistance—June, 201-203
THACKERY, FIONA
Career Expectations of British Visually Impaired Students of School-Leaving Age—June, 209-210
THEATER
Musical Production on Aging—June, 246
Two Theaters Add Audiodescription—December, 426
THIBODEAU, JOANNE
A Model for the Efficient Interdisciplinary Assessment of Young Visually Impaired Children—December, 410-414
THOM, SUSAN L.
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
THORBURN, JAN
Including a Student with Multiple Disabilities and Visual Impairment in Her Neighborhood School—September, 268-272
TRANSITION SKILLS
See also: EMPLOYMENT; VOCATIONAL SERVICES
Cultural Diversity in Action—June, 188-190
A Parent/Professional Collaboration Model of Transitional Planning—June, 227-229
Practical Planning for the Transition From School—February, 60
Transitional Services for Youths Who Are Visually Impaired—March, 69-72
Video Workshop on the Transition Process—March, 88
Visual Impairment Versus Other Disabilities—November, 387
Youth with Visual Disabilities: Transition from School to Work Technical Report, Rehabilitation Research and Training Center, Mississippi State University, Reviewed by Dawn Turco—February, 35
TRAVEL
Recreational and Educational Get-Away in Spain—June, 240
Travel Information Network—November, 386
Travelogues with Disability Focus—October, 315
TURCO, DAWN
Braille Bill Update—May, 131-132
TUTT, LOUIS M.
Council of Schools for the Blind—June, 204

U
UGANDA
Uganda—November, 385
UNESCO
Books of International Interest—November, 384
France—November, 384-385
UNICEF
Children in Developing Countries—November, 384
UNITED KINGDOM
Electronic Newspaper in United Kingdom—June, 240
UNITED NATIONS
Awards—September, 278
UNITED STATES ASSOCIATION FOR BLIND ATHLETES (USABA)
Sports for Blind Athletes—October, 314-315
USLAN, MARK M
A Review of Two Low-Cost Closed Circuit Television Systems—October, 310-313
UYS, RENE
South Africa: A Survey of Attitudes toward Employing Blind Teachers in Schools for Sighted Children—April, 118-120

V
VAUGHAN, C. EDWIN
A Peer Support Network for Blind People with Diabetes—November, 377
VETERANS ADMINISTRATION
New Central Telephone for Information on Veterans' Benefits—January, 27
Review of Health Care in Plans for Future Improvements—January, 27
Scholarships for Dependents of Blinded Veterans—March, 88
Veterans Benefits Explained—June, 248
VIETNAM
Connecticut Institute for the Blind—October, 317
VOCATIONAL SERVICES
Curriculum for Medical Transcription—December, 420
Internships for College Graduates Who Are Legally Blind—June, 244
VOLUNTEERS
Book on Education Advocacy—December, 422
Lighthouse for the Blind in Seattle—September, 280
A National Volunteer Program: What It Would Mean for Nonprofits—February, 45
Program Gives Access to Volunteer Readers Via Fax—April, 118

W
WARDEN, KATHLEEN
Prelanguage Communication of Students Who Are Deaf-Blind and Have Other Severe Impairments—October, 302-307
WEITZMAN, DONALD MARK
Diabetes Treatment Breakthrough—November, 325-328
Promoting Healthful Exercise for Visually Impaired Persons with Diabetes—November, 361-364
WHEELCHAIRS
Mobility Device Redesigned—February, 55
WIENER, WILLIAM R.
An Innovative Model for Training Orientation and Mobility Assistants—May, 134-137
WILKINSON, MARK E.
Characteristics of Students Evaluated at a Residential School's Low Vision Clinics: 1981-1991—June, 180-182
WILLIAMS, ANN S.
Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons at Cleveland Sight Center—November, 352-353
Diabetes Treatment Breakthrough—November, 325-328
Guidelines for the Practice of Adaptive Diabetes Education for Visually Impaired Persons—November, 378-382
WILLIFORD, HENRY N.
The Effects of Regular Exercise Programs for Visually Impaired and Sighted Schoolchildren—February, 50-52
WILMER EYE INSTITUTE
Low Vision Device Uses Video Cameras That Manipulate the Environment—May, 150
WITTENSTEIN, STUART H.
Is Braille a Language?—May, 132-133
A Parent/Professional Collaboration Model of Transitional Planning—June, 227-229
WITTY, LINDA
Precane Devices in a Residential School Setting—June, 205-206
WOLFFE, KAREN
Learning and Study Strategies of Secondary School Students with Visual Impairments—September, 263-267
WOMEN
Publications Investigate Women's Issues—February, 61
WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION (WHO)
The Management of Low Vision in Children: Report of the 1992 World Health Organization Consultation—October, 307-309
WRITING SKILLS
An Analysis of Errors in Braille Writing Samples—January, 12-18
WU, LI-YUAN
Suggestions for Refining the Chinese Braille System—October, 289-294
WU, YU-HSI
Teaching English as a Second Language in Taiwan—February, 55-58

X
XEROX IMAGING SYSTEMS
Reading System—December, 416